Inspiring a passion for science and nature, the EcoTarium offers three floors of interactive exhibits, exciting shows in the Alden Digital Planetarium: A National Geographic Theater, daily science programs, live animal habitats, hikes through forest and meadow trails, treks on Tree Canopy Walkway, a train ride around the grounds, PLUS unlimited play in the newest expansive outdoor exhibit, Nature Explore. As an intern or volunteer, you will work alongside our professional staff, acquiring new skills and knowledge. Interns and volunteers can be found in every department of the museum – working directly with our wildlife, delivering school and public programs, researching content for new exhibits, sprucing up the grounds, decorating for major special events, and running our administrative offices.
